BOOTCAMP REFUND POLICY

Refunds before the contract start date:

1. If the institution receives tuition from the student, or a person on behalf of the student, the institution will refund the student, or the person who paid on behalf of the student, the tuition that was paid in relation to the program in which the student is enrolled if:
 - a. the institution receives a notice of withdrawal from the student no later than seven days after the effective contract date and before the contract start date or
 - b. the student, or the student's parent or legal guardian, signs the student enrolment contract seven days or less before the contract start date and the institution receives a notice of withdrawal from the student between the date the student, or the student's parent or legal guardian, signed the student enrolment contract and the contract start date.
2. The institution will refund the tuition for the program and all related fees paid by the student or a person on behalf of the student enrolled in the program if the student is enrolled in the program without having met the admission requirements and did not misrepresent his or her knowledge or skills when applying for admission.

3. If a student does not attend any of the first 30% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term, the institution may retain up to 50% of the tuition paid under the student enrolment contract unless the program is provided solely through distance education.
4. Unless the program is provided solely through distance education, if the institution receives a written notice of withdrawal from a student:
 - a. within 7 days after the contract is made, and before the contract start date, the institution may retain 5% of the total tuition and fees due under the contract to a maximum of $250.
 - b. more than seven days after the effective contract date and
 - i. at least 30 days before the contract start date, the institution may retain up to 10% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract, to a maximum of $1,000.
 - ii. less than 30 days before the contract start date, the institution may retain up to 20% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract, to a maximum of $1,300.

Refunds after the contract start date:

5. Unless the program is provided solely through distance education, if the institution receives a written notice of withdrawal from a student after the contract start date
 - a. but before 30% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term have been provided, the institution may retain up to 25% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract. 30% of hours of instruction is equivalent to the first day of the second week of the in-person period of instruction).
 - b. and after 30% but before 60% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term have been provided, the institution may retain up to 50% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract.
 - c. after 60% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term have been provided, no refund is due.
6. Any of the following, if substantiated, will result in immediate dismissal without a warning letter or probationary period:
 1. Sexual assault.
 2. Physical assault or other violent acts committed on or off campus against any student.
 3. Verbal abuse or threats.
 4. Vandalism of school property.

5. Theft.
6. Academic dishonesty/Cheating.

Unless the program is provided solely through distance education, if the institution provides a notice of dismissal to a student and the date the institution delivers the notice to the student is:

- a. before 11% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term have been provided, the institution may retain up to 30% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract.
 - b. after 11% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term have been provided, no refund is due.
7. Refunds owed to students must be paid within 30 days of the institution receiving written notification of withdrawal and all required supporting documentation, or within 30 days of an institution's written notice of dismissal.
 8. Where the delivery of the program of study is through home study or distance education, refunds must be based on the percentage of a program the student has received an evaluation for at the rates as set out in Section 5 and 6 above.
